

WHY CHRISTIANS SHOULD CARE

about foster care

ANSWERING THE CALL

a Christian responsibility

Caring for children in foster care is more than an act of kindness or a “good deed.” It is a fulfillment of God’s commandments to care for the most vulnerable in our society. It is a reflection of our faith.

“Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after the orphans and widows in their distress.” James 1:27

REFLECTING JESUS

Jesus calls us to care for the vulnerable, and children in foster care are among the most in need. By opening your heart and home, you reflect His unconditional love and compassion.

LOCAL MISSIONS

Foster care is a local mission field where children and families need the hope of Jesus, the love of the Church, and the Gospel shared through faithful foster parents.

DISCIPLESHIP

Fostering is not just about changing the lives of children; it’s also about transforming your own life. The journey of fostering can deepen your faith, strengthen your reliance on God, and teach profound lessons about love, patience, and selflessness.

“BEING INVOLVED IN FOSTER CARE IS THE SUBSTANCE OF WHO WE ARE AS CHRISTIANS.”

Ryan Worley,
Pastor & Foster/Adoptive Dad

WAYS TO ENGAGE

OPEN YOUR HOME

Open your home for foster care, respite, emergency care, or adoption,

SUPPORT FOSTER FAMILIES

Wrap around the foster families in your church. Provide practical support and encouragement.

ADVOCATE

Raise awareness about the needs of children in foster care within your church and community.

PRAY

Commit to praying for children in foster care, foster families, and the system as a whole.

get connected

